BELT 1

Mr. President, can I appoint a personal privilege to make some announcements.

PRESIDENT: State your point, Senator.

I'd like to announce that tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock the Omaha Ambassadors will have a short program beginning at 9 o'clock. It's a very fine group and Senator Snyder will be in charge. We've also, the Executive Board, has also had some complaint about the use of pages should only be used for running errands for Senators and should not be used for research or secretarial work or personal. They just want to clear the record. If you need any more research or secretarial work, why get in touch with Jack Rogers or Eunice. And I might also announce that Friday at noon if you want to introduce any bills because Monday is the last day, Friday at noon to get your bill into the bill drafter in whatever form so that he can get it drafted. By Friday noon of this week. It'll be introduced on Monday. They'll have it ready for you. In any form, bring it into the bill drafter by Friday noon tomorrow and it'll be ready for introduction on Monday which is the last day. Well I think that's all the announcements that I have, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Senator. The chair recognizes Senator Barnett.

SENATOR BARNETT: Senator Hasebroock, do you have the notice on that Lincoln delegation meeting tonight. I'm not sure all the senators were here the day that we announced it.

SENATOR HASEBROOCK: Yes, we do have and I think it might be well to have another roll call on it to see all those who are to be present or did you just want an announcement.

SENATOR BARNETT: Well, I think it'd be a good idea to find how many are going to be present at the Nebraska Club tonight for the Lincoln city council and the senators get together.

PRESIDENT: They've asked the senators to give an indication with your green light of how many of you plan to be at the Nebraska Club tonight for the city of Lincoln.

SENATOR BARNETT: And I think I might add that that meeting tonight is just for the legislators not their wives, just the legislators. I'll check on that if anybody would like me to but I'm sure that Ralph Nelson said that 6 o'clock tonight at the Nebraska Club the legislators of the city council. Mr. Chairman, why don't you let me check with Ralph Nelson and I'll get back to the body to find out if this is correct and then we'll go ahead and get a complete account, would that be alright?

PRESIDENT: Thank you.

There isn't any question, that is correct.

SENATOR BARNETT: Well if you know it's correct Vince then I say let's go ahead and take the count so that they'll have some idea.

PRESIDENT: This is legislators only, not spouses. Right. Once again, would you give us an indication of your intention for tonight. Do you plan to be at the City of Lincoln reception at the Nebraska Club on the vote board.
