

(Start belt #1)

PRESIDENT: Senator Burbach.

SENATOR BURBACH: I'd like to ask unanimous consent that we take tomorrow's readings of the bills at this time.

PRESIDENT: It takes a motion to suspend the rules, Senator.

SENATOR BURBACH: I move to suspend the rules and take tomorrow's readings of the bills at this time.

PRESIDENT: Motion is to suspend the rules and take up tomorrow's final reading bills today. Is there a need for a discussion of the motion? Question is shall the rules be suspended and final reading for tomorrow be taken up today. All those in favor vote aye. Opposed vote no. Thank you. Clerk will record.

Clerk read vote: 37 ayes, 1 nay.

PRESIDENT: Rules are suspended, motion is carried. We'll take up tomorrow's Final Reading today beginning with 895. Once again, I would like to remind the senators we're on Final Reading. We'd like to have them in their seats. Senator Keyes.

SENATOR KEYES: Mr. President, a point of personal privilege this morning.

PRESIDENT: State your point, Senator.

SENATOR KEYES: Because of the fact, while we're getting ready on Final Reading, that we are going to discuss some education bills, I'm going to have passed out some amendments to a bill that I am going to offer. You can read it over and look at it, and decide on it. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Attention please. Final Reading. Are you readin for the Final READING of LB 895?

(Machine was shut off)

: in following up of an earlier decision that 1101 be expedited and sent to the Governor's office.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections to expedition of LB 1101? Senator Syas, do you object? Senator Waldron, do you object? Hearing no objections, so ordered. Senator Waldron for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR WALDRON: Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to be excused for the remainder of the morning.

PRESIDENT: Senator Waldron asking to be excused, are there objections to his absence? Hearing none, so ordered. Are there resolutions on the desk?

CLERK: A new bill, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Read.

Clerk read

PRESIDENT: So ordered.
