PRESIDENT: State your point Senator.

SENATOR KOKES : It gives me great pleasure this morning to introduce an old friend and one of the most civic minded people in our area, Dr. Aulsebrook, he is under the south balcony. Dr. would you rise and be recognized.

PRESIDENT: This is Dr. Aulsebrook. Senator Kokes, I think we should mention also that Dr. Aulsebrook, you may remember those in the legislature I am sure will remember who bought those 72 acres up near Ord, Nebraska on which is now located Fort Hartsep and in turn this generous man has deeded that back to the State of Nebraska for preservation as a historical site. It is indeed one of the finest states finest restoration in progress. Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER HASEBROCK: Mr. President, members of the legislature, I would like to announce that our Clerk, Mr. Vince Brown is on required military duty, as you know he is a member of the Air National Guard and he is on required duty for three days in West Virginia. He will be absent for three days and we know that we are in good hands with the Assistant Clerk.

PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements from the floor.

CLERK: None Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: What do you have in the way of committee hearings in or reports.

CLERK: Read

PRESIDENT: That is all the reports Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. The chair would like to recognize Senator Stahmer.

SENATOR STAHMER: Mr. President, I would like to point a personal privilege. I have passed out a sheet this morning signed DS and I see some papers passed out by Duke Snyder with a DS on them also. It did occur to me that we had two DS' and here I share the room with they guy so from here on a I'll sign my papers Dave and he can sign his Duke, but I put one out this morning on 1302, DS thats mine.

PRESIDENT: Thank you Senator. If we could clear the floor we would take up final reading on the two bills that were scheduled for today. Do we have any new bills?

CLERK: None Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: We will move to the consideration of bills on select file. We will begin with LB1377.

SENATOR : Question of the clerk, I don't have the amendment to 1377 were there E & R amendments on that one?
