: and five is for an area code which is used for states, interstate wats lines and there has been a lot of confusion and cost. If you do this why then they just bill a higher regular toll. I would suggest you read this very informative letter from George Gerdes and govern yourselves accordingly when you use the wats lines. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you sir. Chair recognizes Senator Swanson.

SENATOR SWANSON: Mr. President, members of the legislature, the other day I reminded the body and I would like to do so again that the executive board would certainly appreciate if you have any resolutions calling for interim studies if you could have those to us by next Monday, so we'll have an opportunity to sit down, group them together and come back with the recommendations. Also if any of you have any suggested changes for the rules that we might be adopting say for next session, the executive board would also like to have your suggestions. Now whether we're going to have an opportunity during the remainder of this session to study and come in with the recommendations as far as rules are concerned, I don't know. But we certainly would be taking a look at them during the interim. So if you have any suggestions for rule changes for the next session and if you have any resolutions calling for interim studies, please get them to me as soon as possible.

PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcement? We are attempting to clear the floor and then get the senators in their seats so that we can begin the long list of Final Reading for this morning. Senator Skarda for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR SKARDA: Point of personal privilege.

PRESIDENT: Alright. State your point, Senator.

SENATOR SKARDA: Senator Kokes wants to be excused.

PRESIDENT: Who does?

SENATOR SKARDA: Senator Kokes.

PRESIDENT: Alright, thank you. Are there objections? Hearing none, so ordered. Here we go. Senator Holmquist, good morning.

SENATOR HOLMQUIST: Good morning, Mr. President, I just wanted to ask a question of Senator Skarda.

PRESIDENT: Alright.

SENATOR HOLMQUIST: Senator SKarda, was that love call of the morning dove?

SENATOR SKARDA: You bet.

PRESIDENT: Just think what we've been missing by not meeting at 8:30 all during the whole session. Alright Clerk will begin the Final Reading of 66A.
