

(Start Belt #1)

SPEAKER: Will the Legislature please come to order. We will have prayer by the Chaplain.

CHAPLAIN: Prayer given.

SPEAKER: Roll call.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Syas asked to be excused.

SPEAKER: Are there any objections.

CLERK: Senator Chambers asked to be excused.

SPEAKER: Are there any objections?

CLERK: Senator Goodrich asked to be excused.

SPEAKER: Likewise any objections?

CLERK: Senator Kremer asked to be excused.

SPEAKER: Are there objections to Senator Kremer's absence.

CLERK: Senator Stahmer asked to be excused on the grounds that he is appearing in District Court this morning on a mandamus action against School District 66.

SPEAKER: That's an excusable--that's an excusable absence. Are there any objections to the absences? If not, it is so ordered. The Chair recognizes Senator Mahoney.

SENATOR MAHONEY: Mr. President, just to prove my point, this is Friday.

SPEAKER: Thank you sir. Chair recognizes Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: A, a year ago and in the past, we have had a procedure which on sleepy Fridays, which I always am in favor of if I was here, we put on the board a list of what were presumed to be non-controversial bills. In the area that developed, if they were controversial, we passed them over so I'd ask permission of the presiding on the body to have the Clerk now put on the board somewhere a list of these bills so the members can look at them between now and the time we get through with final reading and I would presume we'll go to general file after select file. Maybe we can get rid of 20 bills.

SPEAKER: Thank you, Senator, we will attempt to do that. Have you all registered your presence? Clerk will record. Stand by, Senator Proud.

CLERK: Quorum present, Mr. President.

SPEAKER: Thank you. Are there corrections for the Journal?

CLERK: None, Mr. President.

SPEAKER: Are there any corrections from the floor? If not the Journal will stand as correct. The Chair recognizes Speaker Proud.

SENATOR PROUD: Mr. President, I'm not sure that I understood. Senator Carpenter was that to move non-controversial bills to the head of general file or what?

SPEAKER: No, he was asking if on Friday there could be prepared a list of bills that would be generally considered non-controversial for general file action when perhaps there were enough of the body absent that it might slow down otherwise controversial--

SENATOR PROUD: Well, certainly, I think that is worthy of consideration and when the time comes, of course, that motion
