

EIGHTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE

SECOND SESSION

January 7, 1976

PRESIDENT WHELAN: Thank you, Chaplain Palmer. The Second Session of the Eighty-Fourth Legislature of the State of Nebraska shall please be in order. Roll call. Record your presence.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Chambers asks to be excused until he arrives.

PRESIDENT: We had a malfunction at the Clerk's desk. Would you all rerecord please? Have you all recorded? Record the presence, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Burrows asks to be excused until he arrives. A quorum present, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Under #3 of your agenda, it is now time to appoint a Committee to advise the Governor that we are in session and receive any message that he may have.

CLERK: We have a motion to that effect.

PRESIDENT: All right. Read the motion. Senator Burbach, you will make the motion to appoint the Committee to advise the Governor that we are in session.

SENATOR BURBACH: Would the Lieutenant Governor please fill this in as to that which you wish to have call upon the Governor.

PRESIDENT: Would you make the motion that the President appoint the Committee?

SENATOR BURBACH: I so move, yes.

CLERK: The motion, Mr. President, is that a committee of five be appointed to advise the Governor's Office that the Eighty-Fourth Legislature, Second Session of the Nebraska State Legislature has convened and is ready for the transaction of business.

PRESIDENT: You have heard the motion. All in favor say aye. Contrary say nay. Because they are in costume, the Chair appoints Senators Rasmussen, Dickinson, Nicol and Maresh to retire to the Governor's Office to advise him that we are in session and return with any message he may have. I guess the motion read five. Senator Kennedy has a vest on that will pass for some sort of a costume. Senator Kennedy, you are also a part of the committee. Thank you. Don't go too far, Senator. We will sit at ease while the committee is out. From outside of the United States, we have the Governor from Amman, Jordan, who is seated under
