SPEAKER NICHOL: Just a word, Mr. President and members of the Legislature, today, I know you are wondering what we are going to do. We are going to break for lunch. Lets plan to go till about five o'clock, and we have one extra resolution to offer this morning, it is timely, Senator Howard Peterson has a man out there that is retiring and it is timely that we get that done today. So we have done very well this week and if we do as well today we will be in good shape to get to the end of the session. I see all of you are smiling this morning about the Supreme Court decision. It is unlikely that we will appeal it. So with that lets have a good day. Thanks.
