PRESIDENT NICHOL PRESIDING

PRESIDENT: (Microphone not activated.)...W. Norris Legislative Chamber. We have with us this morning Reverend Gerald Lundby of the American Lutheran Church in Lincoln. Would you please rise. Thank you.

REVEREND LUNDBY: (Prayer offered.)

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Reverend Lundby, we appreciate your being here. Come back and do it for us again. Roll call, please.

CLERK: Mr. President, I do have a quorum present. I did have a request from Senator Lynch to be temporarily excused, however.

PRESIDENT: Do we have a quorum now? All right. Do we have any corrections to the Journal this morning, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: I have no corrections, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Do we have any messages, reports or announcements?

CLERK: I have no messages, reports and/or announcements, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: All right.   We'll go to legislative resolutions then, number 99.

CLERK: Mr. President, LR 99, found on page 1903 of the Journal, asks the Legislature to congratulate the residents of Union on the...this their centennial year.

PRESIDENT: Senator Wehrbein, please.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature. I'll take both of these. I have one that is for Union and one that is for Nehawka celebrating their 100th anniversary this year. I was going to look up to see where the names of the town came from, and I forgot it. My memory says Union has to do with the railroad times back 100 years ago. Nehawka is from an Indian term meaning, I forgot what it means offhand.   But anyway I'd like to   recognize   these   two communities, both of which were incorporated in 1887 when the railroad came through.   What is significant, in the case of Nehawka, it was originally Factoryville, and it was moved when the railroad bypassed the town, as was typical in those days, it
