

NINETIETH LEGISLATURE
FIRST SPECIAL SESSION

November 11, 1988

PRESIDENT NICHOL PRESIDING

PRESIDENT: The Ninetieth Legislative Session, the First Special Session, we welcome you to our meeting today. Would you please rise for the convocation by Chaplain Harland Johnson.

REVEREND HARLAND JOHNSON: (Prayer offered.)

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Chaplain Johnson. May we please have the roll call. (Gavel.) Ladies and gentlemen, members of the Legislature, would you please record your presence so that we may move on. Thank you. Record, please, (gavel) if we could have order, please.

CLERK: Mr. President, we do have a quorum present.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. I have a declaration that I would like to read, please. Ladies and gentlemen, this is the declaration, please, if I could have your attention. (Read Declaration found on page 2 of the Legislative Journal.) Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have a proclamation from the Governor. It reads as follows: (Read Proclamation found on page 2 of the Legislative Journal.) Mr. President, in conjunction with that, I have an official listing of the membership for this Ninetieth Legislature, First Special Session, as supplied to me by the Secretary of State. That will be inserted in the Journal as well. (See pages 3 and 4.)

PRESIDENT: I would like to make an introduction. Over under the north balcony, Senator John Weihing has a couple of friends from his district. They are Adrian and Jennifer Smith. Would you young folks please stand up and wave your hands so we can see who you are. Thank you. They are especially happy this afternoon. Their hometown of Gering, Nebraska won their volleyball game, I understand, so that is why they are all smiles, I believe. Thank you for visiting us today. Mr. Clerk, shall we move on to the election of officers. Senator Labeledz, we are ready to move on to the election of officers, please.
