

January 7, 1993

HARLAND JOHNSON: (Prayer offered.)

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Chaplain Johnson. I will now introduce to you the Chief Justice of the Nebraska Supreme Court, Judge William C. Hastings, for the swearing in ceremonies.

CHIEF JUSTICE HASTINGS ADMINISTERED OATH OF OFFICE TO THE SUPREME COURT JUDGES.

CHIEF JUSTICE HASTINGS ADMINISTERED THE OATH OF OFFICE TO THE BOARD OF REGENTS MEMBERS.

CHIEF JUSTICE HASTINGS ADMINISTERED THE OATH OF OFFICE TO THE BOARD OF EDUCATION MEMBERS.

CHIEF JUSTICE HASTINGS ADMINISTERED THE OATH OF OFFICE TO THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSIONERS.

CHIEF JUSTICE HASTINGS ADMINISTERED THE OATH OF OFFICE TO THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT MEMBERS.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you very much, Chief Justice. Congratulations to each of you. (Applause.) Before our newly elected and newly installed state officials retire from the Chamber, I would like to announce that a reception will be held for these officials and the newly elected State Senators at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 p.m., and you are all invited to join us there. Now, would you all please rise while our new officials retire from the Chamber in this order--Mr. Secretary of State, the Workers' Compensation Court, the Public Service Commission, the Board of Education, the Board of Regents, Mr. Chief Justice and the members of the Supreme Court. Thank you very much. Would the Escort Committees please come forward and escort the officials from the Chamber. Thank you. |

CLERK: Madam President, Senator Dierks would like to have the Agriculture Committee meet under the north balcony now for purposes of, I assume, selecting a Chair...Vice Chairperson. Agriculture Committee underneath the north balcony now. | That's all that I have, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Seeing no further business, I would like to recognize Senator Lindsay. Senator Lindsay, would you like to