SPEAKER BAACK: There would certainly have to be rules and regulations in place that did make sure that you followed label directions, that is absolutely correct.

SENATOR BEUTLER: So are you or are you not getting out of the area of transportation?

SPEAKER BAACK: Well, one of the things is that so much of the transportation is already regulated by the Department of Transportation that that's one of the reasons that we have kind of backed off a little bit on the transportation of it because it is...

SENATOR BEUTLER: What if the Department of Transportation directive is in conflict with an EPA limited use label? What happens?

SPEAKER BAACK: I don't think that could happen. I mean, I don't know, that would be something that the federal government would have to decide if the EPA...I mean, those are two federal agencies and I would assume that they have to have their rules and regulations to jive.

SENATOR BEUTLER: But it has to do with pesticides and doesn't the Department of Ag have to be the lead agency on that? See, I'm trying to tell you where...

SPEAKER BAACK: I understand what you're saying, Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...my...I'm not trying to...

SPEAKER BAACK: No, I understand what you're saying, Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...haunt you, I'm trying to...

SPEAKER BAACK: I really do.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...point out my own intellectual inability...

SPEAKER BAACK: And I'm trying to...

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...to separate these things out.
