

March 23, 1993      LB 588

SENATOR BEUTLER:      Madam President, I would withdraw that amendment.

PRESIDENT MOUL:      The amendment is withdrawn. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK:      Senator Beutler would offer AM969.

PRESIDENT MOUL:      Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER:      Madam President, I would withdraw that amendment.

PRESIDENT MOUL:      Okay, the amendment is withdrawn, and next amendment.

CLERK:      Senator, 969 that you modified with your handwritten note.

PRESIDENT MOUL:      Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER:      Madam President, I would withdraw that amendment.

PRESIDENT MOUL:      Okay, amendment is withdrawn.

CLERK:      I have nothing further on the bill, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL:      Senator Hohenstein...or Senator Baack, would you like to make the motion to advance?

SPEAKER BAACK:      I would move to advance LB 588.

PRESIDENT MOUL:      Okay. Mr. Clerk, we have another amendment?

CLERK:      Madam President, Senator Beutler would move to amend. (Beutler amendment, AM0997, appears on page 1127 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT MOUL:      Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER:      Madam President, members of the Legislature, I hope that you have the patience to maybe indulge in maybe a half hour or an hour of additional debate on this bill. I have only two, or maybe three, depending on what happens, amendments left and I will be done. My purpose was never to filibuster the
