

said, I cosponsored, at least it puts in a mechanism by which the state can evaluate the effectiveness of the program that's being implemented by this legislation, to make sure that it's accomplishing what Senator Haberman intends. And certainly I know Senator Haberman's intentions on this piece of legislation are admirable. With the adoption of this amendment I can support the legislation. I would encourage you to vote for this amendment as well. Thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Will. Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. Chairman, members of the body, I support the amendment. If we can make this bill better in future years, I'm all for it. Thank you very much.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Haberman. Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Mr. Speaker, members, just very quickly. I support the amendment. I just wondered if Senator Will or Senator Hartnett, either one, had any comments about what you would determine what the effect...what would be an indication of effectiveness in this case, in my mind may be a little bit difficult, but just maybe for the record, I don't know. But...

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Hartnett.

SENATOR HARTNETT: I think...I think simply to find out do...does the liquor commission have any...is it really working, you know, how effective it is, you know, have they found some, you know, by putting the label on, you know, have they seen some determination on maybe the number of liquor or kegs sold in the state. You know, is there some indication, I think, kind of a general way, I think, that's something that...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: The...maybe the decline...a declining use of kegs by minors would be one, or...

SENATOR HARTNETT: Yeah, yeah.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...in the number of parties that would be that.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Yeah.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Okay. Senator Will, you had a comment, did
