

be established by whether there was seconds and whether the body would agree that there is a call of the question. We've defeated calls of the question taken too early before, but I want to guess that the body would say that a fair amount of discussion as to the nature of the enforcement powers of the safety committees has been fairly debated.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Abboud, I am going to let the body make this decision as to whether there has not. I think the rule does say that I may say there hasn't been enough debate, but we have been debating this issue and I will ask for sufficient seconds to the call of the question. I do see five hands. We will now vote on ceasing debate. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. We are voting on ceasing debate. Have you all voted? Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: Mr. Speaker, we have a number of members who are off the floor. A call of the house would be appropriate.
