

Yes. Do I want the barbarism to end? Yes. Do I want peace and goodwill? Yes. Will this do that? I don't think so. But I would like to show some sense of frustration. I would like to show that I want to do something, but I want to be very cautious of what I personally recommend our commander-in-chief to do. I don't feel I have all the information and the information I do have makes me very nervous because I know historically what have happened to other countries...

SPEAKER BAACK: Time.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: ...who have also taken sides in this part of the world, whether it be World War I or World War II. And I'm going to be very cautious on the positions I take. Thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Bernard-Stevens. Mr. Clerk, an amendment to the Beutler amendment.

ASSISTANT CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Chambers would move to amend the Beutler amendment. (Chambers amendment appears on page 1705 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature, because I didn't have time to distribute this, I would ask the Clerk to read it, please.

ASSISTANT CLERK: The Chambers amendment to the Beutler amendment would add the following language. In no case shall the United States assume a disproportionate share of the financial and military burden associated with or resulting from any such undertakings.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Members of the Legislature whenever these so-called international coalitions are put together, the United States is always the one who winds up doing the lion's share of the work. Before I get into that I'd like to tell Senator Withem and others why America was so quick to stand up, as it were, to Hussan Hussein, Saddam Hussein, but they are not so anxious to mess with the Bosnians. The Bosnians pitched Hitler a fit during the war and that is known. So the reason America, Senator Withem, is not so anxious to get involved in a military way is because the Bosnians can fight. They have the means to
