SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Moore, I, right off the top of my head, I can't recall whether there's any that do. I'm...I'm certain that there are some states that do have limitations for the '94 election, but I...but I can't tell you which states they are right off the top of my head. I know we've contacted a number of other states that do work with this. But I, right off the top of my head I can't tell you who they are, but I could find out.

SENATOR MOORE: Senator Schimek, do you know the answer to that question?

SENATOR HALL: Senator Schimek.

SENATOR MOORE: Only because...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: No, I'm sorry, I don't, Senator Moore.

SENATOR MOORE: Okay. And the only reason I'm asking is that I...as we move forward on unchartered territory, I've always been a little concerned about how to move. And that's why I was comfortable with the...with the bill in the form as it came out of committee, and as amended. I've always been one to think, I think the body does...some sort of campaign contributions may indeed be inevitable. But I guess I want to move slowly instead of quickly, because I don't know what exactly we're getting into. And if Senator Bromm's amendment was adopted, which I oppose, I would...if it was adopted, I'd certainly be of the opinion that we ought to kill 587.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Senator Moore. Senator Witek, on the Bromm amendment.

SENATOR WITEK: Mr. Chairman, members of the body, I wanted to rise and...and say again what I still don't understand about this bill. I was not here when it was discussed on General File. I was a member of the Government Committee when Senator Baack came to the Government Committee and asked that this be postponed for two years because there were so many questions about this bill. And I jumped at the chance to postpone it because I wanted to look into the public funding area and this use of public funds in campaigns. I was under the impression at that time, and I still believe rightly so, that when we went into the Exec Session, the members of that committee requested that all language be struck from the bill and that the only
