

doesn't mean that others don't benefit by going. This is why I'm unwilling to say just cut the Legislature's budget. Not only are we the kicking person for everybody else, we do that to ourselves. And I think it ought not be done. Let us vote for this amendment, take each of the other propositions as they come along, and vote those that we think have merit. Senator Schellpeper pointed out already money that was added to the budget for other things. Senator Byars, before it's over I may have some money that I can take from Southeast Community College, and that money will be available for something else. So there are places where money can be derived, and maybe from Southeast Community College's campus in Lincoln, because it's in Lincoln where a chancellor sits who is not handling...

SPEAKER BAACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...serious problems in the way they ought to be handled. And if we're going to put money in those operations, those people are going to do their job, or I'll try to get their money from them. And I'll tell you all this, if I...if a problem that has arisen that I think typifies the worst kind of racism that can occur is not properly handled by that chancellor of the Southeast Community College system, then we're going to agree to take any funding for the community colleges by itself and look at that. Or if it's going to be surrounded by other things, those other things are going to have to slow down, too, while this consideration is being given. But that's where some money can come from. Laying all that aside now, Senator Haberman, I offer you Tiny Tim or Scrooge. I'm going to vote for Tiny Tim, Senator Schellpeper is voting for Tiny Tim,...

SPEAKER BAACK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...Senator Byars and Senator Wesely are Tiny Tim supporters. Where do you stand? You are Scrooge.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Bernard-Stevens.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Thank you. And I do not wish to extend the debate much further than what it already has, unlike last night where we spent four hours on a bill that was going to be delayed for two years and going to come back anyway. So the amendments we discussed or did not agree to were relatively insignificant and made no difference. But nonetheless, I did
