

SENATOR LINDSAY: It would certainly help. Number two would be the a...the specifics of...the specific abortion procedure as opposed to general terminology about right now in the Bohlke amendment refers to commonly used abortion procedures, which may not include the abortion procedure which is going to be used, that information. The...I'm trying to go back to my notes here. I apologize.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's all right.

SENATOR LINDSAY: You're talking about just the information, what information she would require.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So the name of the physician and you think there should be more specificity in the information about the abortion procedure.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Well, this is...and I'm going purely to the information, not to how the information is provided. That (inaudible).

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Right, just the content.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And what else?

SENATOR LINDSAY: As far as the content...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is that about it?

SENATOR LINDSAY: I believe so. I'm just going back (inaudible).

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That seems...that seems surmountable to me.

SENATOR LINDSAY: I have...Senator Chambers, I have not gone back and compared which information is and is not, but I will go back...those two stick out to me. I will sit down and go back through and do the comparisons.
