SPEAKER WITHEM: A quorum is present, the Legislature is in session. Prior to beginning today's work I would like to introduce the doctor of the day, a special recognition is warranted here. We have Dr. Jay Matzke of Omaha, who in addition to being our doctor of the day, is also the son of Senator Matzke and along with Dr. Matzke is his son, Jered Matzke, the grandson of Senator Matzke. So welcome to our Chamber this morning. With that, are there any corrections to the Journal?

(See pages 451-59 of the Legislative Journal.) And I have received reports from the Lower Platte North NRD and the Lewis and Clark NRD, reports filed pursuant to statutory provision. That's all that I have, Mr. President.
