PRESIDENT ROBAK PRESIDING

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Welcome to the George W. Norris Legislative Chamber. Our chaplain for the day is Pastor James Lingren from St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Verdon, Nebraska and St. Peter's Church in Falls City in Senator Vrtiska's district. Pastor Lingren.

PASTOR LINGREN: (Prayer offered.)

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Pastor Lingren. Please record your presence.

CLERK: Quorum present, Madam President.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Senator Wickersham announces the following guests are visiting the Legislature. (Four students from Chadron State College and two sponsors.) Will you please stand and be recognized. And the cookies that are on your desk are from Senator Wehrbein in lieu of treats that he missed on his August birthday. Are there any corrections to the Journal?

CLERK: No corrections, Madam President.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Announcements.

CLERK: Just one. Senator Witek offers a new resolution, LR 310. (Read brief summary of LR 310. See pages 708-09 of the Legislative Journal.) That will be laid over, Madam President. That's all that I have.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Confirmation reports.

CLERK: First, reports by Senator Schimek as Chair of Government Committee. Senator, I have the report of Miss Ellen Lierk to the Accountability and Disclosure Commission.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Good morning. Oh, thank you very much. Madam President and members of the body, the first report today is a report on Ellen Lierk for the Nebraska Accountability and Disclosure Commission. Ellen is from Alliance, Nebraska. She has been involved in economic development while living in
