LB 1066

of Catholics than Protestants, some of them didn't, but they all had the MacBride Principles, so we're doing here a...a exercise in futility. Madam President, I ask for a roll call vote.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Haberman. Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Do I have any time left?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: No...you...your time just ran out. It ran out as you...

SENATOR HABERMAN: I'm a week late and a dollar short anyway, so...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Cudaback. We're waiting for Senator Cudaback. We're waiting for Senator Cudaback. Senator Haberman. I'm sorry. I thought you had raised your...you have...I thought that you wanted to speak. I'm sorry.

SENATOR HABERMAN: I do.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Would you like to proceed, or would you like to wait for Senator Cudaback?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Do I get to speak?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: I'm sorry, Senator.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Do I get to speak or not?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: No, Senator. Senator Cudaback is on his way here. Would you like to proceed before he gets here? Thank you, Senator. Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Is there a machine vote?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: A machine vote? May we proceed? Thank you, Senator. The question before the body is whether to bracket LB 1066 or not. All those in favor, vote aye. All those opposed, vote nay. Have you all voted? Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Roll call vote, please.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Please...there's been a request for a roll
