LB 1066

holler, I'm going to do this, I'm going to do that, I can do it also. He's been a good teacher. He's been a good teacher. So we'll go through the amendments, one by one by one. Oh, also, I would like to...I would like to throw this into the Lincoln senators. The Harris Laboratories have an investment in Ireland. They're opposed to the MacBride Principles that are in the bill. Right here in Lincoln they're opposed to the MacBride Principles. There are other firms, I read the other firms, they're opposed to the bill. Now, you know, there's one other thing I can do. Being as I did not vote, I can move to reconsider Hall's amendment to 1066 and we can go through the exercise again, so I think I'll do that. I'm going to move to reconsider AM 3685 to the Chamber's amendment. So, if I could have a Page, please.

CLERK: Do you want to withdraw your motion that we're on?

SENATOR HABERMAN: No, I don't want to withdraw my motion.

CLERK: Okay. Then we're on this motion. We'll do that.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Yes. We'll do that one later.

CLERK: Okay.

SENATOR HABERMAN: What I'm asking in this motion that we're talking about now is to recommit 1066 to the Banking and Insurance Committee, so they can take another look. They could even have a committee meeting while we're still in session. They could do this tomorrow or the next day. They could have a committee meeting. And they could have me come down and Senator Chambers come down and Senator Hall come down and everybody talk, try to convince the committee yes or no, they should put the bill out or they shouldn't. That's fair. That's up front. I'm...I'm being honest with you. I'm not telling you one thing and doing something else. So, we're...we're going to really get through this thing. We're going to... If this takes three or four hours, I don't care. I've had a good teacher. Senator Chambers taught me well how to do this. All you have to do is keep talking and make noise and that's what I'm going to do, is keep talking and make noise. So, this motion is to recommit to the Banking, Insurance and Commerce (sic) Committee from where it came from, LB 1066. Now, what we're talking about investing down in South Africa. That's what we're talking about. We have...I have newspaper stories. I haven't been to South Africa
