

April 7, 1994

LB 1066

excluded, along with several black homelands, the right wing leader said. The white wing...the white right wing and Zulu nationalists oppose the constitution negotiated. Now, let's talk about the Zulus. They're the largest black entity within the black entity in South Africa and they're tough. They are tough. We had a picture in the paper the other day of the Zulus and their...and their swords. They're great ones to use swords...or use...not swords, but they use...what is the word, what am I thinking about, Senator Hall? They use...spears...that's right. Thank you, Senator Hall. I'm...I'm glad to see you're getting into the spirit of the thing. It shows these Zulus with the heads of their spears, about this long, thousands of them, putting on a demonstration. And, the white police are supposed to stop all of this. They didn't do it because they know that those Zulus would have turned on them and used those spearheads. So...we don't know what's going on down there, really. I think Senator Chambers might have a point. We don't know what's going on down there, but what's going on down there is wrong. It's wrong for this country to get involved and we are getting involved by having 1066. So let's refer it back to the committee, have the committee make some phone calls, find out what's going on in South Africa. Then, if the committee feels that they should advance it, we have plenty of time to do that. We can "expediate" the bill, expedite the bill, and we can get it through this year. So I would say that let's recommit 1066 to the Banking, Insurance, Commerce (sic) Committee and that's all I have to say on this particular motion, Mr. President (sic)...Madam President.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Haberman. There are no further lights. Senator Haberman, do you wish to close on your motion?

SENATOR HABERMAN: What do I have, four or five minutes?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Five, Senator.

SENATOR HABERMAN: And it's now 5:24, so it's 5:29?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: That's correct, Senator.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Okay. Thank you. I'll close. Senator Schimek, may I ask you a question, please? Should we include Israel in this bill?

12762