LB 1066

SENATOR HABERMAN: And they were black, weren't they?

SENATOR ROBINSON: Well, well...they're a minority.

SENATOR HABERMAN: They had spears? They had spears?

SENATOR ROBINSON: Yeah, they...some of them did have spears.

SENATOR HABERMAN: They're not the minority. No, they're in the majority.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Well, and...I guess in South Africa they are. Yeah. Yeah...yeah, that...

SENATOR HABERMAN: Now, we'll get back to Israel. You wanted me to explain something to you. Well, let me see. If we're going to discriminate...if...if...if we're discriminating in 1066 in South Africa and in Ireland, aren't we discriminating in Israel, if we don't include them?

SENATOR ROBINSON: Who...who you got...who are you discriminating against?

SENATOR HABERMAN: The Israelites. They're not being hired either. They're fighting. They're fighting.

SENATOR ROBINSON: How about the Palestinians?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Well, we'll include them too, then.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Seems like...seems to me they're the ones that are getting killed over there.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Well, then, that's discrimination then.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Well, if they're getting killed, it seems to me they're getting discriminated against.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Senator Robinson, thank you very much for your comments. I appreciate it. Do you have something else you want to say? Senator Schmitt, would you answer a question for me?
