PRESIDENT ROBAK PRESIDING

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Ladies and gentlemen, welcome to the George W. Norris Legislative Chamber for the fifty-fifth day of the Ninety-third Legislature, Second Session. Our chaplain for the day is Pastor Brent Kuhlman, Faith Lutheran Church in Hebron, Nebraska, from Senator Coordsen's district. Pastor Kuhlman.

PASTOR KUHLMAN: (Prayer offered.)

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Pastor Kuhlman. Will senators please record your presence. Senator Coordsen.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Madam President, for the purpose of a little announcement this morning, Pastor Kuhlman and his wife became parents of a baby son Tuesday past. So I thought that public congratulations might be in order also. (Applause.)

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Congratulations, Pastor. (Microphone not activated...an introduction of the Mothers of the Year this morning as soon as there is a quorum, so I encourage senators to come and record your presence early. Mr. Clerk, please record.

CLERK: I have a quorum present, Madam President.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Mr. Sergeant at Arms, do you have an announcement to make?

SERGEANT AT ARMS: Madam President, it is our honor and great privilege to introduce to you at this time Sunny Welch of Wood River, the '94 Nebraska Mother of the Year; and also the '94 Nebraska Mother of Young Children, Lori Andersen Eversoll of Lincoln, escorted by Joan Burney here. Okay.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Schellpeper.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Good morning, and thank you. This morning it's my distinct pleasure to introduce to you Mrs. Joan Burney from Hartington, Nebraska. She is a daughter-in-law of a former Governor, Dwight Burney. She's also the 1991 Nebraska Mother of the Year and the 1993 National Mother of the Year. She is also President of the Nebraska Mothers Association. And so, with that, I would like to introduce Mrs. Burney to the Nebraska Legislature. Joan.
