SENATOR ASHFORD: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...just taking time?

SENATOR ASHFORD: No, I'm...no, I am not taking time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Then why don't you withdraw it?

SENATOR ASHFORD: Well, I'm not...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I am asking you.

SENATOR ASHFORD: No, I'm...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I know...I am asking you, why won't you?

SENATOR ASHFORD: Because I want to get a vote on it.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And if you don't get a vote within eight hours, then what are you going to do?

SENATOR ASHFORD: Well, what am I going to do after eight hours? Is that how long we're going to be? Well, let's wait a few hours and see how it goes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And you are going to take a few hours of the body's time on an amendment that has no chance of being adopted, no more chance than the kind of amendments that I offer.

SENATOR ASHFORD: Well, you know, I am not going to do but I will sit here if you want to do it.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, you mean you'll let me put my name on the amendment, then I can withdraw it?

SPEAKER WITHEM: One minute.

SENATOR ASHFORD: No, I will sit here and watch, watch you use the time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: All right. I support what Senator Wickersham is doing. This amendment has no chance whatsoever, but I don't think it deserves a vote. However, I am not going to say that I will go all out to stop it from getting a vote, but I won't say that I will not do that either. This thing, I don't like to say
