

that?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So it is just the cost that you are talking about.

SENATOR FISHER: Absolutely.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And do you think there might be counties where the public at large would not agree with that,...

SENATOR FISHER: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...and would vote...so you think in every county they would vote to keep the exemption?

SENATOR FISHER: Absolutely.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you think in Douglas County that would be the case?

SENATOR FISHER: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: On what basis do you hold that opinion?

SENATOR FISHER: Well, I think that they have their organization like they do in the rest of the counties. I would not see any change, I have not read any articles about that. You are the first person that seem to object to it, and I just, just from first blush, you asked me that question, no, I don't think they'd change it.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, Senator Fisher, I was the first one to say athletes should be paid, and now it is being said by coaches, athletic directors, and people all over the country. So just because I'm first doesn't mean necessarily that I'm wrong.

SENATOR FISHER: Let me ask you this, are they being paid?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Who?

SENATOR FISHER: The athletes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, yeah, but they are not being paid in the way that I want them to. They, see, under my plan, and if
