in other areas. My particular probably preference if we are looking at this is services for mentally ill youth. I think when we talk about crime and crime prevention and all the things and the cost that we are seeing in the future, this definitely is a program and in the long-term could save not only money, or redirect money, but could save many, many heartbreaks. It is going to involve more state agencies than just the Department of...

SPEAKER WITHEM: Time.

SENATOR HILLMAN: ...Social Services. Thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM: One more guest to introduce, Senator Hudkins would like us to know that her husband, Larry Hudkins, is in the south balcony. Larry, if you can stand and not fall out and wave at the group. Welcome. Senator Robinson. Senator Robinson calls the question. Do I see five hands? I do. All in favor of calling the question vote aye, opposed vote nay.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Day to close.

SENATOR DAY: Mr. Speaker and members, I appreciate the discussion that we've had here this afternoon. I hope that when we come back next year we can look forward to all of the departments and the executive branch and those of us in the Legislature working together to solve this problem. At this time, I will pull my motion to override the veto.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Motion is withdrawn. Other motions, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Bromm would move to override with respect to the textbook loan program.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Bromm.

SENATOR BROMM: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I went and talked to Senator Hall after he withdrew the motion, and I became convinced that I think we at least need to take a very quick look at this. It is a small amount of money. It is a very modest amount. It is $50,000. I think the body could, if they wanted to, at least, make a statement by approving this small additional override. The situation is that the money for the
